Writ Petition No.9420 of 2006

Order:

By this writ petition, the petitioner is seeking a direction to respondent No.4-Labour Court to dispose of I.D. No. 215 of 2004 pending on its file alleging that though the evidence was completed and arguments were heard, the matter is being posted for judgment from time to time.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Standing Counsel for the respondents.

No direction as prayed for by the petitioner to dispose of the I.D. can be given, for if any such direction is given, it would have an effect on the disposal of the cases, which are already in queue and ripe for hearing. However, if the petitioner has any grievance, he is at liberty to represent before the Labour Court concerned for early disposal of the I.D., and now that the arguments in the matter, are said to have already been completed, certainly the Labour Court will dispose of the I.D.

The writ petition is devoid of merit and the same is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
